UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE

** The Court has compared this order to the version that was originally submitted with the motion. The Court greatly appreciates the concern expressed by the moving parties that consultation with Mar-Bow had not yet occurred and therefore the request for a stay of all discovery related to the retention application was being withdrawn. Such actions are an indicia of the good faith that the Court requires of all parties. On its own motion, the Court stays all discovery related to the retention application until such time as a request is made for a <sup>2</sup>hearing. At such time, the Court will vacate the stay and an orderly discovery process will be implemented.
